

Anna Graf Williams, Ph.D. – Senior Partner, Learnovation®, LLC

Dr. Anna Graf Williams is a co-founder and senior partner of Learnovation®, LLC, and a national expert on career development, education, and workforce development. She is the coauthor of the Creating Your Career Portfolio: At-A-Glance Guide series, as well as the Family Guide and the Immigrants Guides to the American Workplace. Dr. Williams is a frequent speaker on career advancement, job readiness, and economic development, and has authored more than 30 books and over 250 refereed articles and white papers on related topics. Anna leads the Learnovation®, LLC team with her research and outcomes assessment focus for industry, education, and government clients. Her research work with the O*Net database provides a foundation for new advancements in ePortfolios and helping people document and promote their skills and abilities. Anna also has a passion for how individuals learn. She has a Ph. D. in Educational Administration, as well as two Masters degrees in Educational Curriculum Development and Design, and Restaurant Hotel Institutional Management from Purdue University. She has a Bachelor's degree in Institutional Food Management from the University of Illinois. Anna has specialized throughout her career on innovative and holistic teaching methods, outcomes assessment, marketing and management.